

Rostyslav Volkov

Full Stack / Node.js Developer

Energetic and detail-oriented go-getter with a robust background in communications and marketing, now shifting gears into a self-taught developer. Equipped with creativity and problem-solving skills, my goal is to craft captivating web experiences that leave a lasting impact.

SKILLS

Programming language: JavaScript.

Frameworks: Express.js, React.js.

Database: MongoDB / Mongoose.

Testing: Jest, SuperTest.

Protocol: HTTP.

NON-COMMERCIAL EXPERIENCE

Without formal commercial experience, I've taken the initiative to pursue self-guided learning through well-structured online courses of The Odin Project. At the conclusion of this journey, I've built a portfolio of pet projects, showcasing my proficiency and dedication. You can explore it here:
